

Founded in 1999, WOW! has as objective to provide healthy and innovative beverages for any consumption occasion, aiming at the well-being and quality of life.

Located in Caçapava city, interior of Sao Paulo, it is considered the most modern plant of non-alcoholic beverages in Latin America and the first to attain the HACCP Certification, standard of quality and hygiene in foods, created by NASA (National Aeronautics and Space Administration), which plays a pioneering whole in the certification of management systems, aiming at food safety.

The high-quality standards of its products and the healthy and modern appearance of your packaging are important factors in the opening of markets and encourage the consumption in the outside market. WOW! has a differential by developing products which meet the needs of specific markets, providing a diversity of lines and flavors in the branch of non-alcoholic beverages.
